To whom it may concern:

As the acting agent on behalf my client, Remote Possibilities LLC, Garwood Laboratories, Inc. is applying for the Federal Communications Commission's Grant of Authorization for the Remote Possibilities LLC Remote Control Transmitter, Model RBTX1A.

Description of Radio Equipment:

The Remote Possibilities LLC, Model RBTX1A is a miniature keyfob-style transmitter for controlling the "RRemote Basic" system. By pressing buttons on the keypad on the transmitter, the speed and direction of an electric train motor, which is connected to a receiver and motor driver installed in the electric train, can be changed.

Testing was performed by Garwood Laboratories, Inc., 950 Calle Negocio, San Clemente, California. Our Federal Communications Commission Registration Number for this test facility is 0003-7859-20

Thank you.
